Please note: The first images shown are virtually staged to illustrate the potential of the property and to give an impression of how the spaces could be furnished and styled. The property is being sold unfurnished. The photographs shown further in the collage are the actual, current photos of the property, so you can clearly see its present condition.

This charming and spacious home offers a wonderful combination of comfort, outdoor space, and future potential. Featuring 2 bedrooms and 1.5 bathrooms, Casa Cayena offers a comfortable layout with a generously sized kitchen and living area, creating an inviting space for everyday living and entertaining.

Outside, the property truly stands out. With a large garden and generous grounds, there is plenty of room to enjoy outdoor living, create your own tropical garden oasis, add additional amenities, or simply enjoy the extra space.

Another attractive feature of Casa Cayena is its potential for expansion, offering new owners the opportunity to adapt and develop the property according to their own needs and vision.
